Summer Camp 2012

Our tradition repeated this year as well. During the summer vacation our students were engaged in various curriculum and extracurricular activities in which they were taught English, Science and Mathematics. They were also engaged in various indoor and out door sports activities, taught them about self discipline, personal health care, time and values of money and etc... at the end of the camp the out standing ones were honoured with gifts.

Volunteer Mr. Santivesh

He was here little over a month, engaged our students to learn various moral values through stories, spiritual mantras, and Yogas which enhances the memory and concentration power. He also went around the community where he met the community leaders, community members, interacted with them, received much appreciations from them about how this project is empowering them and their children. During his stay he was also taken around to other projects of HOPE foundation.

Independence Day celebration

This celebration was observed at our centre. Mr. Mahendiran, the director HOPE foundation school was invited to be the main guest and Mr. Suresh the principal of Samsun School of hope foundation, Mr. Veil Muthu the coordinator of HOPE foundation were present to honour the kids. Mr. Mahendiran, he then shared many good learning's from Gandhi Ji and Ambedkar. Indeed it was an enriching time for our students to know our independent India and its struggles. On this special occasion's cultural show, prize distribution and refreshments were organised.

P. Balasuriyan is our student who has been our student all these years. Our after school initiative helped him at large to be remain well motivated and focused on his studies. In the recent 10th std state board examination he has scored 442 out of 500 this marks allowed him to be top in his school level.
